) ELECTRONICALLY FILED

ORDER FOR ENTRY ON PREMISES
TO EFFECT LEVY

The United States, having filed an application requesting authorization for Revenue Officer Douglas Smith and/or other designated revenue officers to enter the briefcase which is located at the Internal Revenue Service office, 162 West Chestnut Street, Washington, PA 15301, in order to seize the contents of the briefcase located on or within said premises, in satisfaction of unpaid Federal taxes, together with the affidavit of Eugene V. Batdorf in support of that application, and the court finding, on the basis of the affidavit, that there is probable cause to believe that property or rights to property belonging to John C. Niederberger, or to which, the Federal tax lien attaches which are subject to levy by the United States pursuant to Section 6331 of the Internal Revenue Code are located on or within the premises described, it is ORDERED that Revenue Officer Douglas Smith and/or other designated revenue officers are authorized to enter the premises described and seize the contents of the briefcase, pursuant to Section 6331 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. In making this search and seizure, however, such revenue officers are directed to enter the premises during business hours or the daytime and within 10 business days from the date of this order.
